

BIDDER APPLICATION FORM

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS (Please Read):

Completion of this form will place your firm on the Purchasing Division bidder list only. The City operates with decentralized purchasing. City Departments have the authority to obtain bids/proposals, and may use this listing, or may use other sources to identify potential providers. As such, the City of Arvada Purchasing Division makes no guarantee that the listed applicants will be contacted. Interested bidders are advised to check local official publications for other formal City requests for bid/proposal. In addition, firms may contact any City department via the main address information listed above and identify the commodity categories for which they are providers. Completion of this form is not a requirement for transacting business with the City. Please return pages 1 and 2 via mail or fax as noted above.

For assistance in regard to the completion of this application, please contact Terri Brustad at (720) 898-7092 or email tbrustad@arvada.org.

Pricing Agreement

The City encourages vendors who either publish price lists/catalogs or manage a retail operation to enter into a Pricing Agreement. Under this arrangement, vendors offer a percent or dollar discount off published price lists based on purchased quantities or dollar values. The City accesses Pricing Agreements when competitive bidding is either not required or impractical. If your firm is interested in this arrangement, a follow-up letter and Agreement will be sent to you describing the terms and conditions of the Program.

I am interested in securing a Pricing Agreement. Please send me more information. Yes ___ No ___

Commodity Code (Bidding Category) Selection

On the following pages, place a check mark next to all categories that can be provided by your firm. Once your application is returned to the City, your firm will be registered as a potential bidder for each applicable category checked.

The City's Purchasing Division will notify you, via fax transmission, hard copy, and/or postcard when it is soliciting bids and proposals which correspond to your selected commodities and services. In an effort to preserve public tax dollars earmarked for replication and mailing, please ensure that you only check those specific commodity and service codes that relate to your particular business venture. If you cannot locate the appropriate commodity code, please give a short description in the space provided below.

Products/goods are listed in categories #005-898. Services are listed beginning with #905-998.

Please enter the appropriate commodity codes in the lines below:

BIDDING CATEGORIES: In the boxes below, please enter key words that describe the Goods or Services that your business offers.
