Top 2011 Arvada Businesses Honored

ARVADA, Colo., October 5, 2011 – The Arvada Economic Development Association (AEDA) hosted the 17th annual "Best in the West" Business Appreciation Awards Breakfast on September 29, 2011, which honored local companies and business leaders. The event drew more than 220 attendees.

Nine companies were presented with Outstanding Business of the Year awards in their respective industries. These companies were: 5601 Garage, Able Wellness Center, Asana Yoga Studio, Delta Disaster Services, King Soopers, LT Environmental, Steamers Coffeehouse and Jack's Bar and Grill, The Noerr Programs Corporation and Tokyo Joe's. AEDA also presented three awards of distinction:

- Lloyd J. King Entrepreneurial Spirit Award: Moni Piz Wilson, Grandma's Frozen Egg Noodles
- Community Spirit Award: Dave Doherty, Piper Electric, Inc.
- Manley Gray Distinguished Service Award: Craig Kocian, Arvada City Manager

“The AEDA organization honors Arvada business leaders each year who represent the best in industry innovation, community spirit and the overall commitment they bring to the Arvada community. This awards program signifies the importance of supporting Arvada businesses,” said Hazel Hartbarger, AEDA director.
